

The Ends of Acts

Acts 20 - 28

© 2020 by James Webb. www.NewTestamentin28weeks.com, www.BibleQuizBowl.org

ACROSS

- 2 When Paul was dragged from the temple and beaten, he gave his defense before the Jews who listened until he said that Jesus sent him to the _____. (Acts 22:21,22)
- 8 He told Paul to not be afraid, but that he would appear before Caesar, and that God had granted him the lives of those sailing with him in the storm. (Acts 27:23-24)
- 10 This was a special speaker that was brought by the elders and high priest to accuse Paul before Felix. (Acts 24:1)
- 14 What was the name of the young man who fell asleep and fell out of a window listening to Paul preach? (Acts 20:9)
- 16 From Miletus, Paul called for the elders of this city to tell them that this would be the last time they would see him. (Acts 20:17)
- 17 This man replaced Felix as governor. (Acts 24:27)
- 18 This governor was hoping for a bribe from Paul so that he would release him. (Acts 24:24-26)
- 19 Quoting the words of the Lord Jesus, Paul said it was more blessed to _____ than to receive. (Acts 20:35)
- 20 This king told Paul that he almost persuaded him to become a Christian. (Acts 26:28)
- 21 The commander was about to have Paul beaten until he found out that he was a _____. (Acts 22:24-29)
- 22 This person had died, but Paul affirmed him to be alive. (Acts 25:19)

DOWN

- 1 In his first court appearance before Festus, Paul appeals to _____. (Acts 25:9-11)
- 3 This young man told Paul of a plot to ambush and kill him. He was Paul's _____'s son. (Acts 23:16)
- 4 This commander sent Paul and a letter to the governor Felix. (Acts 23:24-26)
- 5 When Paul was brought before the council in Jerusalem, he divided them by saying that he was a Pharisee and believed in the _____. (Acts 23:6,7)
- 6 She is King Agrippa's wife. (Acts 25:13)
- 7 Jesus told Paul that He would make him a minister (servant) and a _____, both of the things which he had seen and of things that will yet be revealed to him. (Acts 26:16)
- 9 This prophet took Paul's belt and bound his own hands saying the owner of the belt would be bound and delivered to the Gentiles. (Acts 21:10,11)
- 11 Jesus appeared to Paul at night and told him that as he testified about Jesus in Jerusalem, so he must do so in this city. (Acts 23:11)
- 12 While on an island, Paul laid his hands on _____'s father, who was sick with a fever and dysentery. (Acts 28:8)
- 13 This man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. (Acts 21:8,9)
- 15 The name of the island where Paul the prisoner's ship was wrecked. (Acts 28:1)